 You will always have competition for the 1x2 or 2x1 callsign(s) that you are requesting.
 It is a "lottery" of all applications filed on that first day of availability. There is no way to "guarantee" that you will win a callsign. Your chances will depend on how many other people file on the same day that we do.
 There is no refund of ANY fees (W5YI or FCC) if you loose your application due to competition.
 If you give more than one call, they MUST be available on the same day to be filed one application.
 If you give 4 calls available on 4 different dates, that is 4 applications at $29.95 plus $35 FCC Fee for each.
